

DAAD-Preis 2025

The DAAD prize is awarded to an international student at Hanns Eisler School of Music Berlin for special academic achievements and remarkable social and/or intercultural commitment.

Requirements:

- students who obtained higher education entrance qualification abroad, exchange students cannot apply
- special artistic achievements
- social and/or intercultural commitment
- Bachelor students in at least their second year and Master students in at least their second semester

Scholarship amount: 1000,- Euro

Selection process

1. Round
Application deadline	09.06.2025
Application can only be submitted via Muvac The three best candidates will be invited to the second round.
2. Round
Audition	17.06.2025, most likely from 10 to 11 am
The three best candidates present themselves with an audition and a selection interview in front of an interdisciplinary selection committee. For the audition you are asked to organize a répétiteur yourself.
Award ceremony
October/November 2025
The award winner introduces herself*himself to the public in the framework of an (Excellence) concert.

Application documents:

- description of social and/or intercultural commitment
- recommendation from the main subject teacher
- CV

Audition programme: three works of various styles

Contact:

Katja Ehrentreich | Services and International Affairs | Ch 633
international@adm.hfm-berlin.de